SDG Indicator   8.7.1   Proportion and number of children aged 5-17 years engaged in child labour, by sex and age

2.   Definition of indicator
The indicator shows the total number of children who are victims of human trafficking, or who are exploited in other ways. Children are defined to be 13 years old at the most.

3.   Comparison with SDG metadata (as of 03/2019)
The indicator summarizes the data of the Police Crime Statistics (PCS) regarding the criminal offence of trafficking in young human beings, as well as exploitation of childrens labour force in various ways. For more details please have a look at section 4 data description.
The age categories of the indicator differ from those in the SDG metadata.

4.   Data description
The data is taken from the Police Crime Statistics by the Federal Criminal Police Office (Bundeskriminalamt, BKA). There are completed and attempted cases summarized in the data. Since the data is summarising only the cases which were brought to the attention of the police, our numbers underestimate the real situation.
If a person is a victim of more than one crime or of the same crime, but more than once, it is counted multiple times.
From 2010 to 2016 the indicator included the data of the Police Crime Statistics regarding the criminal offence of trafficking in young human beings, and in children especially. The cases of trafficking in human beings were done with the intent of exploitation in labour and of sexual exploitation.
The Police Crime Statistics restructured their classification in 2017 which resulted in new categories for indicator 8.7.1. From 2017 on it also includes - cases of forced labour, - inducement to engage in or continue to engage in prostitution or to engage in exploitative sexual activities, - exploitation of labour without being victim of trafficking in human beings, and - exploitation on the basis of deprivation of liberty.
